

John S. Latsis
Public Benefit Foundation

Programme Supporting Scientific Associations

- 1. We are part of an informal research group that has no legal entity, articles of association and statutory bodies. Can we apply?
Yes, the programme is open to organisations officially established, as well as informal research groups and collectives.
- 2. Our organisation is based in a country abroad, can we participate?
The programme intended for independent scientific organisations / collectives based in Greece.
- 3. How many applications can each organisation / collective submit?
Each organisation / collective has the ability to submit up to two (2) applications to the programme.
- 4. The organisation's / collective's activity relates to more than 2 scientific fields of Social Science & Humanities, how do we fill the application?
Please fill the 2 main fields.
- 5. Is it obligatory to collaborate with another entity?
No, it is not obligatory but it may be considered positively for the application.
- 6. Is there a maximum number of members participating in the group?
No, there is not.
- 7. Can the budget exceed the amount of €5.000?
The Foundation for every selected proposal will grant a maximum of €5.000.
- 8. Is there an indicative analysis of the budget?
An indicative budget is available on the BUDGET section of the Open Call.
- 9. Are offers required for the budgeted costs?
For the project submission they are not required. However, if your proposal is selected the Foundation can ask for them.
- 10. How will we be informed that our proposal was successfully submitted?
After the application submission you will receive a confirmation email.
- 11. How will we be informed about the evaluation results?
The evaluation results will be posted on the Foundation's website. Also on the same day an email will be sent to all participants.

12. Can we send additional information about the proposal after the deadline expires?

No, after the deadline expires no data will be admissible.

13. How the evaluation will be conducted?

A team of independent evaluators will select the proposals that will receive funding. The shortlisted teams, before the final selection, will be invited for an interview.

14. Will the selected organisations / collectives sign a contract with the Foundation?

Yes a contract between each organisation/collective and the Foundation will be signed, describing in detail the terms of the funding.